DELAY IN TESTING - MANDATORY 48hrs prior to voting.

Morning, sorry for not seeing this yesterday. We are just now starting to burn media for countries. I know the state recommends testing this week, however, this may need to be pushed back a bit to allow for us to do all the testing and burning of media. We are still waiting on test decks to be able to get programming completed. I will talk with Brenda and see if she can give me an idea of where you fall in line and when that media should ship.

Thank you,
